

MLS CIE3M COURSE CULMINATING ACTIVITY

Investigating Global Market Impact of the Subprime Mortgage Crisis 2007-2009 upon your chosen MNC or Global Investment Bank/Mortgage Insurance

Company

Teaching Principal Dr. Dan Zebeljan

Department of Canadian and World Studies

Drop Due Date: (Last week of classes, January 2017)

METHODOLOGY: Through a series of Case studies based on Economics Now, (Chapters 1-9 as well as Chapters 11, 12 and 17) and Internet Magazine Sources such as Forbes, MacLean's, and/or International Trade Magazines (see your course outline) students are assigned to investigate the market impact of 2007-2009 Recession (The Subprime Mortgage Crisis) upon one major MNC (Multi-National Corporation) in the Global market place.

- ✓ Students must choose ONE blue chip fortune 500 company listed on NASDAQ. Some of the examples may include MNCs or Large investment banks and/or mortgage insurance companies but are not exclusive to: Microsoft, Lehman Brothers, Bear and Stearns, AIG, Noranda, Bell Canada & Bell Sympatico, Nortel, Bombardier, HP, Sonny, Toshiba, Chrysler, GM, Shell, VW, etc. In investigating market impacts students are also to address the issues of:
 - 1) Cost/benefits of deregulation in relation to economic crises, "the Subprime Mortgage Crisis Meltdown"
 - 2) Blue Chip Market Impact including stock market
 - 3) Quarterly, semi and annual releases (quarterly performance statistics)
 - 4) Privatization
 - 5) Free trade agreements and tariffs
 - 6) Economic blocks
 - 7) Global Economy outreach
- ✓ Aside from the above topics, students must remember to include appropriate economic theories and economic tools of measurement learnt in CIE3M course work, (i.e.: Supply and Demand, Elasticity, Corporate Structure, Economic Systems, Economic Thought, Utility Theory) just to name a few. Students must also pay attention to the elements of hidden economy and investigate legality track record of their chosen company. The best examples of corporate embezzlement could be found in companies such as Enron.
- ✓ Upon the completion of their projects, students are to present their findings in a pre-recorded and uploaded 15-minute Oral Presentation and a 1750-no limit word investigative case study report (student product) by applying the Scientific Method Approach in Economics through the following Seminar Formula:

1) HEADING I: Observation:

- a) Identification : Hooks (Colour Purple)
- b) Definition (s): List Topic Sentences (Colour Green), I, II and III... (*OR AS MANY TOPIC SENTENCES THAT THE DEPTH OF YOUR TOPIC REQUIRES. REMEMBER, EACH TOPIC SENTENCE IS A TEXTBOOK DEFINITION BASED ON TEXTBOOK SUBHEADINGS!
- c) Main Idea: Thesis (Colour Red)

2) HEADING II Data Collection-Topic Sentence I:

- a) Heading II Intro-sentence: Restate Topic Sentence I (Colour Green)
- b) Provide Facts to support Topic Sentence I
- c) Provide Examples to support Topic Sentence I: Primary and Secondary sources, artifacts such as letters, excerpts, witness statements and historical accounts of important historical events and figures. (Colour Light Blue)
- d) Provide Reasons to support Topic Sentence I by using examples for analysis, developing interpretations. (Dark Blue)

3) HEADING III Data Collection-Topic Sentence II:

- e) Heading III Intro-sentence: Restate Topic Sentence II (Colour Green)
- f) Provide Facts to support Topic Sentence II
- g) Provide Examples to support Topic Sentence II: Primary and Secondary sources, artifacts such as letters, excerpts, witness statements and historical accounts of important historical events and figures. (Colour Light Blue)
- h) Provide Reasons to support Topic Sentence II by using examples for analysis, developing interpretations. (Dark Blue)

4) HEADING IV Data Collection-Topic Sentence III:

- i) Heading IV Intro-sentence: Restate Topic Sentence II (Colour Green)
- j) Provide Facts to support Topic Sentence III
- k) Provide Examples to support Topic Sentence III: Primary and Secondary sources, artifacts such as letters, excerpts, witness statements and historical accounts of important historical events and figures. (Colour Light Blue)
- l) Provide Reasons to support Topic Sentence II by using examples for analysis, developing interpretations. (Dark Blue)

5) LAST HEADING: Verification

- ✓ Verification-The conclusion which predicts patterns and forecasts socio-political phenomena otherwise known hypothesis (Colour Orange).

- ✓ The Exit Sheets: Each Seminar Leader must ask 5 most relevant questions regarding his/her Seminar and exchange them with their classmates. The other Seminar Participants must answer these questions in a timely and knowledgeable manner. 5 questions X the number of students in a class= the number of Seminar Practice Questions (AAL Pre-tests), which will eventually form the bases for the AOL Test!
- ✓ Each Seminar Leader must come up with the Glossary of the 15 most important Subject/topic KEYTERMS, IDEAS AND CONCEPTS found in the film!
- ✓ Each Seminar Leader must prepare no less than a 5-questions Quiz that they shall assign and exchange with other students via email and MLS Online AOL Drop-Box. This process is called peer exchange.

EXTRA IMPORTANT:

- 1) EACH SEMINAR LEADER MUST DO THE POWER POINT PRESENTATION FOLLOWING THE HEADINGS FORMAT ABOVE. THE PPP IS TO BE NO LESS THAN 1750 WORDS.
- 2) EACH SEMINAR LEADER MUST EMAIL THEIR PPP TO EACH STUDENT IN THE CLASS! THIS IS CALLED PEER REVIEW!

CIE3M AOL #6: COURSE CULMINATING ACTIVITY CO-CREATED SUCCESS CRITERIA

KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING (25%):

- ✓ _____ 1) Accurately using economic concepts, principles, and terminology related to Micro and Macro Economics
- 2) Accurately using economic theories and approaches to a variety of economic conditions (i.e., economic cycles of growth, prosperity, recession, depression)
- 3) Accurate knowledge and understanding of a required academic format, i.e. (Observation and/or Conversation such as oral presentation seminar/conference/symposium, interview)

THINKING (25%):

- ✓ _____ 1) Using sound economic reasoning and thorough analysis based on extensive research in order to locate information from a variety of sources
- 2) Using a decision-making model effectively in order to evaluate the impact and assess the effectiveness of a proposed solution (status quo or change)

COMMUNICATION (25%):

- ✓ _____ 1) Presenting economic information, terminology, and analysis clearly and accurately, in an appropriate format and style (Oral Power Point Presentation using graphic economics language)
- 2) Presenting economic information, terminology, and analysis clearly and accurately, in an appropriate format and style (Observation and/or Conversation such as oral presentation seminar/conference/symposium, interview)

APPLICATION (25%):

✓ _____ Mechanics:

- 1) Proofreading to apply standard Canadian English language conventions such as punctuation, spelling, tense agreements and sentence structure
- 2) Copyrighting and editing key Economic theories, concepts, and terminology by using primary and secondary sources in an academically appropriate format (i.e., quote and/or paraphrase academically)
- 3) Publishing the final edition by applying the correct publishing format (i.e., list proper primary and secondary sources by using M.L.A format of annotation, title page and bibliography, including works cited and consulted.

✓ _____ Execution and Verification:

- 1) Applying the cost-benefit method of inquiry effectively using stakeholder criteria and economic goals
- 2) Illustrating how the conflicting self-interests of different stakeholders affect the achievement of economic goals
- 3) Building and supporting an effective argument
- 4) Applying technical skills and competencies required for a successful economic project completion (i.e., project management, creativity, body language and eye contact while orally presenting, application of appropriate and accurate economic statistics and forecasts (i.e., formulas, x & y graphs, matrixes, decision making models and/or charts)
- 5) Applying soft skills and competencies required for a successful economic project completion (i.e., reliability, time-management, accountability, planning, work ethics, and detail orientation)

CIE3M AOL #6: COURSE CULMINATING ACTIVITY RUBRIC

Marking Scheme:

- | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Knowledge | 12.5% + Understanding 12.5% = 25% |
| 2. Thinking/Inquiry | 25% |
| 3. Communication | 25% |
| 4. Application | 25% |

See Assessment Criteria, Economics Now, pg. 193*

Learning Expectations	Student:	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
U5L4 W	Categories:	Subject-specific content acquired in each course (knowledge), and the

PDF 15%		comprehension of its meaning and significance (understanding)
		The Student:
	Knowledge of content (e.g., economic theories, concepts, facts, tools, definitions, procedures, principles, and terminology related to both Micro and Macro Economics.	demonstrates limited knowledge of content	demonstrates some knowledge of content	demonstrates considerable knowledge of content	demonstrates thorough knowledge of content
	Understanding of Content (e.g., using economic theories and approaches) through a variety of economic conditions (e.g., economic cycles of growth, prosperity, recession, depression)	demonstrates limited understanding of content	– demonstrates some understanding of content	demonstrates considerable understanding of content	demonstrates thorough understanding of content
	Thinking	The use of critical and creative thinking skills and/or processes
		The Student
	Use of planning skills Using sound economic reasoning and thorough analysis based on extensive research in order to locate information	uses planning skills with limited effectiveness	uses planning skills with some effectiveness	uses planning skills with considerable effectiveness	– uses planning skills with a high degree of effectiveness from a variety of sources (e.g., primary & secondary sources, gathering information and bibliography, selecting strategies, organizing a project); copyrighting and editing key economic theories, concepts, and terminology by using primary and secondary sources in an academic format (e.g., quote and/or paraphrase academically); publishing the final edition by applying the correct publishing format (i.e., list proper primary and secondary sources by using M.L.A format or Footnote annotations, title page and bibliography, including works cited and consulted.

	Use of processing skills (e.g., analyzing,	uses processing skills with limited	uses processing skills with	uses processing skills with	uses processing skills with a high interpreting, assessing, reasoning, generating ideas, evaluating, integrating, synthesizing, seeking a variety of perspectives, forming thesis, topic sentences, hypothesis, conclusions and/or verifications)	effectiveness	some effectiveness	considerable effectiveness	degree of effectiveness

	Use of critical/creative thinking processes Using a decision-making model effectively in order to evaluate the impact and assess the effectiveness of a proposed solution (status quo or change) (e.g., evaluation of economic trends, market responses, problem solving, decision making, detecting bias, research)	uses critical/creative thinking processes with limited effectiveness	uses critical/creative thinking processes with some effectiveness	uses critical/creative thinking processes with considerable effectiveness	– uses critical/creative thinking processes with a high degree of effectiveness
	Communication	The conveying of meaning through various forms The Student
	Expression and organization of ideas and information (e.g., clear	expresses and organizes ideas and information with	expresses and organizes ideas and information with	expresses and organizes ideas and information with	expresses and organizes ideas and information with a high expression, logical organization) in oral, visual, and written forms, including electronic forms (e.g., economic seminars, essays, debates, outlines, oral presentations, economic charts and graphs, tables, matrixes, models, formulas; web pages, spreadsheets; newsprints, statements, and reports	limited effectiveness	some effectiveness	considerable effectiveness	degree of effectiveness

	Communication for different audiences (e.g., peers, guest Economists or Stockbrokers; other academic audience) and purposes (e.g., to inform, to persuade) in oral, visual, and written forms, including electronic forms (e.g., Essays, Seminars, Debates, Outlines, Power Point)	communicates for different audiences and purposes with limited effectiveness	communicates for different audiences and purposes with some effectiveness	communicates for different audiences and purposes with considerable effectiveness	communicates for different audiences and purposes with a high degree of effectiveness
	Use of Economic conventions	uses conventions, vocabulary,	uses conventions, vocabulary,	uses conventions, vocabulary,	uses conventions, vocabulary,

	vocabulary, and terminology in oral, visual, and written forms, including electronic forms (e.g., Essays, Seminars, Debates, Outlines, Power Point)	and terminology of the discipline with limited effectiveness	and terminology of the discipline with some effectiveness	and terminology of the discipline with considerable effectiveness	and terminology of the discipline with a high degree of effectiveness
	Application	The use of knowledge and skills to make connections within and between various contexts			